PURDUE PHARMA, L.P., ET AL

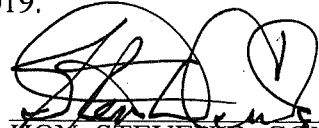

DEFENDANTS

The Court entered an Order on May 11, 2016, dissolving the Agreed Qualified Protective Order entered on December 4, 2013, and allowing the media and/or the public at large access to the Court record in this Action subject to redactions of any personal information (addresses, Social Security numbers, telephone numbers, etc.) contained in the discovery. The Kentucky Court of Appeals affirmed this Court's decision on December 14, 2018, and designated its Opinion "TO BE PUBLISHED." The Kentucky Supreme Court denied discretionary review on August 21, 2019, but designated that the Court of Appeals' Opinion was "NOT TO BE PUBLISHED." After the entire record was returned to the Pike Circuit Court Clerk, the Court has conducted a review of the file and concludes that the entire file shall be UNSEALED due to public interest.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court shall UNSEAL the entire record of this Action FORTHWITH, and the record shall be available for review and inspection by the public and/or the media. If anyone should desire a copy of documents from this record, the Clerk of this Court is authorized to impose its usual copying fee per page. However, use of the documents contained in the record of this Action that may create tortious liability under Kentucky law (invasion of privacy, e.g.) is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.

ENTERED this 19th day of November, 2019.

HON. STEVEN D. COMBS
